Police boss to face retrial over Hillsborough

HILLSBOROUGH match commander David Duckenfield will face a retrial over the gross negligence manslaughter of 95 Liverpool fans.

Judge Sir Peter Openshaw made the ruling at Preston Crown Court yesterday morning following a hearing on Monday.

The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) sought a retrial after a jury was discharged in April following a 10-week trial.

The application was resisted by lawyers for the 74-year-old retired chief superintendent.

Ninety-six men, women and children died in the crush on the Leppings Lane terrace at the FA Cup semi-final on 15 April 1989.

Under the law at the time, Duckenfield was not charged over the death of 96th victim Tony Bland, as he died more than a year and a day after the disaster.

Puppy farming gang pair jailed

TWO members of a "callous" puppy farming gang have been jailed for selling dogs they claimed were bred in a family environment, when they were actually "sickly and diseased", with some dying within days of being sold.

Michael Rushmer, 27, of Thurton, Norfolk, his sister Zoe Rushmer, 26, of no fixed address, and her partner Jacob Murphy, 27, of Norton Subcourse, all admitted conspiracy to commit fraud by false representation at Norwich Crown Court.

Michael Rushmer and Murphy were both jailed for three years and six months.

HEAD GROPED DINNER LADY'S BUM

A SEEDY head teacher who groped a dinner lady as she stocked a school canteen fridge has been axed.

Perv Mike Stobart, 61, also assaulted a teacher at an awards bash at Belmont School in Rossendale, Lancs.

At a disciplinary hearing, the Teaching Regulation Agency heard that Stobart indecently touched two members of staff at the outstanding-rated special needs school.

The panel was told how he groped the dinner lady – referred to as member of staff A – in October 2016, touching her bottom before sliding his hands between her legs.

Stobart accused the woman, who was scared to raise a complaint, of making up the incident.

Panel chair Tony Woodward said: "The member of staff believed that she could not report the incident because of Mr Stobart's senior position at the School.

"But on reflection, due to the impact the incident had on her, she felt she had no other option but to report it."

In 2015, Stobart also assaulted a staff member at an awards assembly at the school, putting his arm around her and squeezing her buttock.

Awkward

He also touched up the same teacher while she was bent over in a medical room.

Mr Woodward said: "After this incident, she tried to avoid eye contact with him."

"Following the incident, member of staff B asked a colleague whether there was CCTV available in the medical room which might have recorded it. This was not available at the time, or subsequently.

"Member of staff B felt awkward and uncomfortable about the incident but did not want to raise it as a formal grievance."

Stobart, who was not present or represented at the hearing, was banned for a minimum of two years.

Mr Woodward said Stobart had displayed "inappropriate, unwanted and sexual behaviour" towards members of staff which "amounted to misconduct of a serious nature which fell significantly short of the standards expected of the profession."

Stobart, who left Belmont School in April 2017, was found to have committed unacceptable professional conduct which was sexually motivated.

'TRUMP IS MENTALLY RETARDED'

War grows more likely as Iran regime lays into US President

THE prospect of a new war in the Middle East grew ever more likely yesterday after the President of Iran slammed Donald Trump as "mentally retarded".

Hassan Rouhani kicked off after the US President imposed tough new sanctions on the regime.

Tensions are already high after the US accused Iran of bombing an oil tanker in the Arabian Gulf and then of downing a £130million US spy drone.

Trump says he called off an air strike on the country just 10 minutes before planes were due to set off.

Now President Rouhani has personally insulted Trump, leading those close to the American leader warning he would seek revenge.

IN an address on Iranian TV, Rouhani said: "Donald Trump's actions mean he is mentally retarded."

"Tehran's strategic patience does not mean we have fear."

Volatile

A White House source said: "The President has been very restrained in his approach to Iran so far."

"Despite intense provocation and pressure from his political allies, he has resisted attacking Iran."

"But this personal attack on his mental faculties is not going down well."

"He can be very volatile

when politics gets personal and it's now odds on that any more provocations, no matter how small, will result in some kind of attack on Iran.

"If that happens, all hell could break loose, as the Russians are backing Tehran and won't take kindly to an attack on an ally by a hostile power."

"This insult could lead to World War 3."

Doctors vote on assisted suicide

THE British Medical Association will ask members if it should drop its opposition to assisted dying.

Delegates at the annual meeting of the doctors' trade union in Belfast voted in favour of carrying out a poll on whether it should adopt a neutral position regarding a change in the law.

While the results of the survey – which would be open to the BMA's 155,000 members – will not be binding, they could inform policy-making in the future.

Under UK law, it is currently illegal to encourage or assist suicide, and doctors found guilty of helping someone to die can be jailed for up to 14 years.

The BMA rejected a motion to adopt a neutral stance at its 2016 annual meeting.

New plans for revenge porn

VICTIMS of revenge porn could be granted better protection as part of a possible overhaul of image-based sexual abuse laws, the Government has announced.

Moves to bring revenge porn – the sharing of non-consensual explicit images without the subject's permission – in line with other sexual offences has been long called for by campaigners.

The Government said it has asked the legal reform watchdog the Law Commission to examine existing legislation to ensure it is keeping pace with technology.

The review will also consider the case for granting automatic anonymity to revenge porn victims.

BORIS: BREXIT WILL HAPPEN!

TROUBLED PM hopeful Boris Johnson has tried to put much-publicised rows with his girlfriend behind him by refocusing his campaign on Brexit.

The former Foreign Secretary has seen his popularity take a hit since police were called to his lover Carrie Symonds's house following a blazing bust-up which was caught on a phone by a Leftie neighbour of her flat in London's Camberwell.

But in a BBC interview yesterday Johnson refused to answer questions about his private life and insisted on talking about Brexit clearly stating: "Brexit will happen. Do or die, come what may."

Deal

He claimed that the Conservative Party would "haemorrhage voters" if the UK did not leave the EU on October 31.

And he reckons he can win a better deal from the EU, saying politics had "totally changed" since March 29, the original Brexit date.

He said: "People are looking at this thing and thinking 'parliament is just not going to do this'."

"But, actually, I think they are."

He added it is time for the UK to stop "being so down" about getting Brexit done, and that the Irish border issue can be solved.

Baywatch star claims fella's been shagging other women

PAMELA Anderson has launched an astonishing attack on her toyboy soccer fella Adil Rami by labelling him a cheater.

Model and actress Pammy, 51, shared a pic of herself with the Marseilles defender, 33, and accused of him of being a "lying monster who scammed her for two years".

MISCHA: I WASN'T READY FOR FAME!

HOLLYWOOD babe Mischa Barton has revealed she was not prepared for stardom, after she shot to fame in The OC.

The 33-year-old actress (right) played Marissa Cooper in the hit TV series at the age of 17.

Following a break from the limelight, she is returning to TV screens to star in MTV's reboot of reality show The Hills.

She said of The OC: "I wasn't prepared for that level of fame.

"It's crazy when you've got people following you all the time - I needed to leave LA.

"But now that I'm back, I'm definitely cautious".

Comedy pair booked into a sex hotel!

FUNNYMEN Bob Mortimer and Paul Whitehouse have told how they booked into a sex hotel by mistake!

The comics said they found couples "having it off" in hot tubs and signs warning of "kissing and cuddling" during the making of their angling series.

Angler and telly host John Bailey, 76, recommended the hotel in Norfolk while helping on Paul and Bob's BBC2 show Gone Fishing.

The series sees the comedy pair share life experiences while fishing around the UK.

Shooting Stars host Bob (above), 60, said: "There was a big door with one of those yellow plastic signs outside like when the floor gets wet."

"But it said 'Don't come in - kissing and cuddling going on.'"

Fast Show star Paul, 61, wrote in a book accompanying the series: "The two of us came down to breakfast and waved to them all, 'Good morning! What are you up to today? Group sex? Right-o! No, that's very kind, but we're off pike fishing!'"

U.S. slang terms for sex in the 19th century included 'fandango de pokum', 'buttock-stirring' and 'being amongst the parsley'.

Mountain of shit is worst Everest risk

THE biggest threat to life for climbers attempting to conquer Mount Everest is human SHIT.

The former head of the Nepal Mountaineering Association said a staggering amount of human excrement is being left on its slopes - more than EIGHT TONS of it this season alone.

Ang Tshering said: "The biggest problem and concern now on Everest is human waste. Hundreds of people are there for weeks who go to open toilets."

Melting conditions at Camp 2 create a stink that is sickening to climbers, and turds will eventually contaminate water sources below and become a health hazard, Tshering warned.

He added: "The problem is there are no regulations on how to dispose of the human waste."

The stunning ginger babe, 27, wore a clinging black dress that split right to the top of her thigh, almost revealing her knickers as she walked.

After the event in Redruth, Cornwall, all anyone was talking about was how fine the actress who plays Demelza looked.

But she looks even hotter without her clothes, as she proved in the flick Colette, where she whipped 'em out for lesbian scenes with Keira Knightley.

TOP BRIT SPRINTER HIT BY NUDE PHOTOS LEAK

ONE of Team GB's top Olympic sprinters has been hit by sick net phone hackers who claim to have leaked naked photographs of her online.

Jodie Williams, 25, who raced in the 2016 Rio Olympics, is one of the UK's top athletes and won a 200 metres silver medal at the European Championships in 2014.

She is also a regular member of Britain's 4x100m relay team.

But her success on the track hasn't stopped evil phone hackers releasing snaps they claim are of her fully naked online.

By JUSTIN DUNN

They reckon they have gained access to her online iCloud account and stolen her personal photos, which were then shared among a select group of hackers before being leaked online.

It is not clear if the pictures are actually of Jodie, from Welwyn Garden City, or clever fakes created using futuristic technology.

Upsetting

A source said: "This is very upsetting for Jodie."

"She is not happy that these criminals are claiming to have naked pictures of her. "Now they're all over the internet and that is awful."

"It doesn't matter if they are real or clever fakes the end result is the same - Jodie's privacy has been breached by these monsters."

Top cop rules out probe into Tory druggies

BRITAIN'S most senior police officer has said she personally looked at drug admissions made by the contenders for the Conservative Party leadership but decided there would not be enough evidence to bring charges.

Metropolitan Police Commissioner Cressida Dick (above) told radio station LBC such action would not be in the public interest and the events took place too long ago for there to be sufficient evidence.

Michael Gove said he took cocaine more than 20 years ago, while Rory Stewart said he had smoked opium in Iran 15 years ago, and Jeremy Hunt said he drank a cannabis lassi backpacking in India.

Ms Dick said: "We have had a very quick look at all the things that have been in the public domain. I looked at it myself.

"The answer is on the basis of what we know, on what we've seen, there is no sign that there'd be sufficient evidence to take somebody to court, so we won't be doing any investigating."

Tom McLennan told the committee: "We've always made it very, very clear to viewers and participants of the show the lie detector is not 100 per cent accurate."

But Mr Collins said: "The disclaimer doesn't mean very much, does it? It's causing considerable distress."

She said of Jason Momoa: "We had to train with him. I was an Amazonian."

"I remember this guy bear-crawling towards me and I was like 'oh my God, he is so hot'."

Speaking about the topless picture, a source said: "Arabella is trying to present herself as a totally classy girl who has firm links with Hollywood. She's never mentioned that she's gone topless in front of the camera!"

"Maybe there's a chance we'll see her strip off in the villa!"

FLACK'S REALITY TV HORROR

TELLY host Caroline Flack says she'd never take part in a reality show herself – as it might stop her becoming a wife!

"And I can safely say you would not get me in there."

I'm not good with creepy-crawlies, water or heights.

VILLA STARS' RANDOM DRUG TESTS

LOVE Island stars must take random drug tests during their time in the villa. Bosses have lifted the lid on how the show is made by handing over paperwork to a parliamentary committee.

Parliament's Digital, Culture, Media and Sport Select Committee met yesterday after being called to probe reality TV shows following the suicide of Jeremy Kyle guest Steve Dymond.

Love Island also found itself under pressure following the suicide of two ex-contestants, Mike Thalassitis and Sophie Gradon.

This year's hopefuls have to undergo an "unannounced drugs test" prior to entering the villa and "if required during the filming period".

Anyone found taking steroids will also be kicked off the show.

Soccer star's 'punch' case kicked out

A LEYTON Orient player has been cleared of punching a cinemagoer who asked him to stop talking during a movie.

Defender Marvin Ekpiteta, 23, was said to have hit Steven Durieux when he complained the centre-back was ruining his enjoyment of Avengers: Infinity War at Vue Cinema in Angel, north London.

Jurors heard Mr Durieux ended up with an injury to his eyelid and a dislocated shoulder after he asked the player and his girlfriend: "Are you going to talk during the whole film?"

Ekpiteta, who helped Orient win promotion back into League Two in April, denied assault causing actual bodily harm and a jury at Blackfriars Crown Court failed to reach a verdict after a retrial.

The prosecution chose not to pursue a third trial.

SAUCY SUSSIE STRIP:
Anna in 2011 flick Victim

By GRACE HOOPER news@sundaysport.co.uk

ANDREA Tate, the wife of Jamie Tate, made her first appearance on Emmerdale earlier this month.

It didn't take long for Andrea to clash with Jamie's estranged mum Kim Tate, played by Claire King.

No doubt Andrea and her mother-in-law will continue to butt heads as her time on the soap continues, as both women seem to be evenly matched when slinging verbal barbs.

Kinky

Now we know Jamie's big secret was that he's got a family of his own, it seems that, if Kim wants Jamie to stick around, she'll have to learn to live with Andrea too.

But the actress who plays Andrea, Anna Nightingale, hasn't always gone around in sensible country gear.

In 2011 flick Victim, she stripped to sexy undies – including kinky sussies – for a saucy sex scene!

One Emmerdale fan said: "Truth be told, the way Emmerdale's going, a bit of sussies action is a bit tame for them."

Anna is also known for appearing in Ashes to Ashes in 2009 as Sally, Misfits as Jenna in 2011, My Mad Fat Diary as Olivia in 2014, and Silk as Louise Philpott, also in 2014.

WOMEN take up two-thirds of space in the home... forcing some men to keep their stuff in the GARDEN SHED.

A poll of 2,000 couples found that men get just one-third of wardrobe, shelf and storage space in a shared home.

And 18 per cent of the men quizzed confessed they had been forced to keep some of their belongings in the garden shed.

Of the women polled, 18% admitted to secretly throwing out their partner's clothing because they 'didn't suit them' and 16% confessed to binning their partner's stuff because they thought it was 'tat'.

Six per cent of women said they had considered leaving their partner for being so messy.

Latest Toy Story flick slammed for 'lack of diversity'

A WRITER has slammed the new Toy Story 4 movie for its lack of "diversity, disablism and anti-feminism".

Speaking to BBC Radio 4's Saturday Review show, she said: "Seriously, it's 2019! What on earth are Disney doing having a film that has no leads that are black characters?"

"Yes, there are black actors, but they are yellow and they are green and they are plush! How can they possibly think that it's alright now?"

But not everyone was in agreement with many declaring it's just a "movie for kids".

"Omg get over yourself, they are toys," wrote one.

Another added: "Slow day, eh? It's a kids movie and no need to create a problem when there isn't one."

SWINGER MURDERED LOVER AND CLAIMED IT WAS SEX GAME GONE WRONG

ALCOHOLIC:
Simpson-Scott

MULTIPLE INJURIES:
Sally Cavender

AN alcoholic swinger who strangled his dominatrix girlfriend in a sex game has been found guilty of murder.

Robert Simpson-Scott, 44, said he lifted Sally Cavender by the neck and heard a crack.

But he only realised Sally was dead when he saw her "glazed" eyes.

Simpson-Scott, of Cambourne, Cambs, called the ambulance service just before 11pm on December 4, telling them his girlfriend was unconscious.

He told officers he was in shock and reiterated an earlier claim to paramedics that he had accidentally strangled Miss Cavender, 44, while she performed "vigorous oral sex".

During the 999 call, he said she had been "unco-operative" while performing the sex act, later adding: "I've killed my wife."

Sally was found with serious injuries in the early hours of December 5 – and died shortly afterwards in hospital.

Limp

Simpson-Scott denied her murder but was convicted by a jury at Cambridge Crown Court.

During his arrest, Simpson-Scott said his partner "went limp" while they were having sex.

Paramedics arrived and Miss Cavender was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge.

A neighbour then told police Simpson-Scott had strangled his until he fell unconscious.

But he was found not guilty of attempted murder or causing actual bodily harm.

Miss Cavender had a fractured spine, multiple rib fractures and a hypoxic brain injury, meaning she was unable to breathe by herself. She also had extensive bruising around her eyes, neck and arms.

In a written

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

statement to police on the day of his arrest, Simpson-Scott said they had been partners for 15 years.

He added that Miss Cavender was a dominatrix outside of their relationship, and that police would find videos of Miss Cavender in this role with other men in his flat.

He added: "She used to spank me and I used to spank her, if that's what you want to know."

Simpson-Scott said their relationship had been "very good".

He said: "We loved each other dearly and expressed it regularly."

Naked

He admitted that Miss Cavender used to "laugh, giggle and cuddle together" with his best friend and neighbour, Graham Searle, 45.

Mr Searle said that Simpson-Scott and Miss Cavender were "quite happy to walk around naked in front of me".

In a video recording of his police witness interview, Mr Searle said that the couple were swingers and that a few months before Miss Cavender's death he had revealed to them that he had not had sex in six years.

He said Simpson-Scott had then given him "half a Viagra pill" and the next thing he knew "Sally was on top" of him.

When asked by police what Simpson-Scott's reaction was to him having sex with Miss Cavender, he said that the defendant had been fine with it and said he had been "in and out of the room" while it happened.

Mr Searle also told the court that he, Simpson-Scott and Miss Cavender were all alcoholics.

Cross-examined by the defence team, Mr Searle admitted he had a dependency on alcohol and he would lie in bed for seven hours just waiting for the off-licence to open.

Miss Cavender's family said she was a "bright and bubbly person" and described Simpson-Scott as an "evil, manipulative man".

Simpson-Scott will be sentenced at the Old Bailey on Thursday.

WOMAN CHOKED LOVER UNCONSCIOUS

A WOMAN who choked her girlfriend until she passed out has been jailed for 28 months.

Kyla Ramatar, 26, threatened to kill Lauren Christopher during a series of phone calls.

The women were in a relationship for two years until Ms Christopher ended it in February, Inner London Crown Court heard.

Prosecutor Carol Summers said: "The partner has given us statements where she says her ex-partner has made credible threats to kill via a number of telephone calls."

Ms Christopher made a police statement describing the threats and abuse before she ended the relationship.

"Since then she asked for money from me every day and told me if I didn't give her the money she was going to stab someone," she said.

In one call, Ramatar told her: "I am going to stab you, I am going to fg kill you."

She also made threats to kill the father of Ms Christopher's baby.

On 19 January, Ramatar flew into a rage and assaulted Ms Christopher at her southeast London home.

She grabbed her with both hands around her throat and strangled her unconscious.

Ramatar, of Manor Place, Walworth, southeast London, admitted putting a person in fear of violence by harassment, assault occasioning actual body harm, robbery and theft.

X Factor Matt plays down texts to Meg

SINGER Matt Cardle has dismissed online messages he reportedly swapped with the Duchess of Sussex before she met and married Prince Harry as "nothing".

The 2010 X Factor winner and former Suits actress Meghan Markle were said to have been in touch previously online.

Appearing on ITV's Lorraine, Cardle said: "It was so little then, and if not nothing, it's nothing now."

Insisting it was "absolutely nothing", he added: "It's just funny what can be made of nothing nowadays."

The singer will next be seen in Jesus Christ Superstar at the Barbican, playing the role of Pontius Pilate.

He said: "It's a huge thing for me, it's the total opposite of me."

"You know, anything I've done on stage before I could find a little bit of me inside, but with Pilate I think he really is quite the opposite of me, so it's something to get my teeth into for sure."

HOLLY Willoughby and Phillip Schofield were left stunned on This Morning as presenter Alison Hammond had a run-in with police on air.

The show favourite found herself in trouble with the law as she filmed her segment in Pisa without a permit.

Just seconds into her live coverage, Alison had just managed to say her location and mention the Leaning Tower of Pisa when an Italian policewoman appeared on screen and ushered her away.

Holly and Phil were seen in the corner of the screen, stunned as the trouble unfolded while Alison joked about being arrested.

The camera continued to roll away from the police, showing Alison fleeing through the streets of Pisa.

Shag the wife but hands off my toothbrush

BRITS would rather share their partner with another lover than share their TOOTHBRUSH, a poll has revealed.

A survey of 2,000 Brits by car sharing app Drivy aimed to find out where Brits 'draw the line' when it comes to sharing with other people.

Asked what they would definitely not share with anyone else, 99 per cent said 'their toothbrush'.

Asked the same question about their partners, just 87 per cent said they would never share their partner romantically with someone else.

The top four items we would 'never' share with another person were...

1. Toothbrush - 99 per cent
2. Bathwater - 94 per cent
3. Towel - 93 per cent

4-in-10 women

FOUR out of 10 women want sex more than their partner, according to a new survey.

It found that 43 per cent of women said they had a higher sex drive than their male lover and they found this frustrating.

There was little difference between the sexes, with 42 per cent of men saying they wanted sex more than their wife or girlfriend.

The results challenge the age-old stereotype that it is always men who want more sex in a relationship.

Three-quarters of couples (72 per cent) have been in a relationship with mismatched libidos.

Strayed

Of these, two-thirds (62 per cent) said that the different sex drives had been a factor in their eventual split.

The findings come from a survey of 2,000 people, split evenly among the sexes, by IllicitEncounters.com, the UK's leading dating site for married people.

It found that mismatched libidos were a factor in 52 per cent of affairs.

Women who cheat (54 per cent) and a similar number of men (56 per cent) said they strayed because they wanted more sex than their regular partner.

By JAYNE FERGUSON

Six out of ten women (62 per cent) and 59 per cent of men said that mismatched libidos was a 'red flag' which would spark immediate concern as to whether a new relationship would last.

Three-quarters of women with higher sex drives (74 per cent) have discussed this with their partner and tried to sort out the issue.

Only 57 per cent of highly sexed men in the same situation have done the same.

A spokeswoman said: "Couples with mismatched libidos are doomed - the partner with the higher sex drive will invariably end up cheating. "There has been a long-held stereotype that it is always men who want more sex than their female partners - that is rubbish.

"Women are becoming more open about what they want in the bedroom and that is a good thing."

More than 10,000 new people have signed up to start affairs with IllicitEncounters.com since the start of the year.

Driver probe over 'journey from hell'

A NATIONAL Express coach driver has been suspended after passengers told of a "horrific and abusive" trip from Heathrow airport to Devon.

One - former deputy headteacher Beth Lees, 50 - said: "It was a journey from hell."

She claimed the driver swore at passengers and arrived two hours late.

National Express said the driver of the Saturday night service has been suspended pending an investigation.

Ms Lees, from Exeter, Devon, said after getting on to the M5 the "grumpy" driver came off and "for an hour and a half we roamed the countryside".

She added: "He was clearly lost. A couple of ladies went up and said he was going the wrong way. He was saying 'fk off, it's my fking coach, I'm fking driving it.'"

PLAYBOY BABE IS ARRESTED FOR METH

By GRACE HOOPER

news@sundaysport.co.uk

A PLAYBOY Playmate has been arrested for meth possession.

Valerie Mason – who appeared on five episodes of The Girls Next Door – didn't have any drugs on her but was riding in a car carrying two grams of suspected methamphetamine.

Police say she and two others who were riding in the vehicle, which was pulled over for a broken brake light, denied ownership of the drugs.

They were all arrested and charged with possession.

Mason was sitting in the front seat and the meth was allegedly found in a container in the passenger door panel.

Illegal

A hypodermic needle cap was also found in the car, police said.

Mason, 31, is a Louisiana native who appeared in Playboy in September 2008.

She was featured on The Girls Next Door – filmed in the Playboy Mansion and shown on E! – later that year.

She was released on bail on a £2,500 bond.

A police source said: "Two grams of meth is not an insignificant amount of illegal drugs to be driving around with."

"So far everybody's denying everything, but what they can't deny is that those drugs were with them in that car."

Strippers' fury over spy cams

STRIPPERS are up in arms after an anti-lap dancing campaign group carried out undercover filming of private nude dances.

Not Buying It claimed the recordings in Victorias and Obsessions clubs in Manchester showed breaches in licensing rules – including sex acts.

The group said covert filming in March was the "only way to get anything done about the industry".

Daisy, a dancer who was filmed, said: "I consent to being on CCTV because it keeps me safe, but I don't consent to these people filming me."

A spokesperson for Victorias said it took the allegations seriously and was co-operating fully with a council investigation.

'TREAT ME RIGHT' GEM WARNS ARG

REALITY star Gemma Collins has given James Argent a strict code of conduct to follow after their umpteenth reconciliation.

The couple, who have been on and off more times than a light switch, recently went on a make-or-break holiday to Italy where Gemma confirmed their romance was back on.

It's believed that during their vacations the self-confessed diva told Arg he needed to reassess his priorities – with his number one being to "make her feel special".

Fals of the couple, who split in February said: "She told him she expects him to make her feel reassured, stay in regular contact when they are separated by work commitments and stick to his healthy lifestyle."

Gemma, 38, and Arg, 31, split again in April after his huge weight reportedly caused a rift between them.

FAKE UBER DRIVER WORE A STRAP-ON COCK!

AN ODDBALL accused of impersonating an Uber driver has been arrested while wearing a fake cock and taking snaps of women's boobs.

Tommy Beard was nicked in March, and charged with two counts of kidnapping and of impersonation.

Beard, 62, is accused of picking up intoxicated college women from bars, and when he was arrested, police said they found photos on his phone of unconscious, clothed women in his backseat that focused on their "breast and crotch area".

Penis

Court records also said that at the time he was wearing a “fully erect” artificial penis.

Investigators said that when they searched Beard's car they found a loaded gun.

In March, a cop spotted a suspicious vehicle in the early hours, and the driver was identified as Beard.

An unconscious college aged female was in the back seat and Beard said he was an Uber driver and was taking her home.

He later admitted that he is not actually an Uber driver, saying he bought an Uber sign for his car and began picking people up to give them rides.

He had photos on his phone of females that appeared to be drunk and out cold while in the backseat of his vehicle.

He is being held in custody in Birmingham, Alabama.

Nut nicked in garden with his hose out

Craig Sheets (above) 58, was held on theft and trespassing charges after cops were called in by the owner of the home whose garden he was in.

The owner had seen Sheets, who was nude, using his garden hose to shower and asked him to leave, but he refused and continued using the garden hose.

Sheets told police that a woman had asked him to do garden work, but officers were unable to confirm that.

He also told police in Casper, Wyoming, that he thought the water was free.

Sheets was hauled off to the lock-up and held pending a court appearance.

Brits spill beans on boozy naked home work days

A poll of 2,000 Brits found that eight per cent whipped on a shirt or blouse when a video meeting was arranged, but wore nothing else – not even UNDERWEAR.

The study also found that 31% of Brits don't even bother getting out of their pyjamas or dressing gown when working from home, preferring to rattle away on their keyboards without bothering to get showered and dressed.

Bosses at accounting software firm FreeAgent found that 44% of Brits now work from home at least one day a week.

And while 19% admitted drinking booze during the working day, 7% cooked themselves a three-course meal as a treat from the normal working day sandwich or salad.

Teacher held for videoing girls undress

A DRAMA teacher has been accused of recording "multiple" female students undressing in school.

Police investigating accusations against Raphael Schklowsky (above) combed through 3,500 videos and uncovered the filming inside the school.

Schklowsky, 35, hid cameras in rooms throughout the school to get video and photos of students undressing from May 2017 through June 2018, police said.

He was previously charged with 20 counts of possession of child porn and one account of unlawful filming.

Police first arrested Schklowsky in early April after they found cameras in the au pair's room in the home in Reston, Virginia, where he lives with his wife and two children.

The investigation into the recording of female students is still ongoing as they attempt to identify the dozens of victims.

FORENSIC science is more important than ever in the world of crime-solving.

Traces of unidentified DNA or mystery fingerprints are now held indefinitely by investigators, hoping that one day they will prove to be the final piece of a jigsaw. And it works, too – sometimes in breathtaking ways – looking at murders that, despite taking years to solve, the brilliant, painstaking work of police and forensics experts were able to finally lead the perpetrators to the prison cell.

Today, we look at how cops finally caught up with a boastful killer...

By JUSTIN DUNN

news@sundaysport.co.uk

FOR a quarter of a century Paul Hutchinson had evaded capture for the rape and murder of 16-year-old Colette Aram, even writing goading letters to the police.

But new testing techniques allowed scientists to build up a DNA profile from samples taken at the murder scene and a local pub Hutchinson had visited straight after he killed Colette.

When a close relative had a sample taken for a driving offence 26 years later, it flashed up a match – allowing officers to move in.

Police sources said Hutchison even planned to try to wriggle out of it by claiming the DNA could have been from his dead brother – but realised the game was up after detectives disclosed they already had his brother's DNA on file and it did not match.

At Nottingham Crown Court on December 21, 2009, Hutchison, then 51, finally admitted murdering Colette Aram.

The court heard he abducted, raped and killed the teenager as she walked to her boyfriend's house in Keyworth, Notts, on October 30, 1983.

He strangled the trainee hairdresser, dumping her naked body in a field a mile-and-a-half from her home in the village.

The high-profile murder became the first to be featured on BBC television's Crimewatch programme.

And in 2004, police began a cold case review of the crime, DNA testing over 800 men in the area.

Screaming

Nottingham Crown Court was told that, on the day in question, Hutchinson had hidden in a shed on Mudpie Lane in nearby Lady Bay.

During that time he spied on girls horse riding at a stables before he stole a red Ford Fiesta owned by the principal of the riding school and drove to Keyworth.

He had a bread knife with him and he was spotted numerous times in the village before Colette Aram was abducted, approaching two other girls.

The court heard she was making the 20-minute walk from her home in Keyworth to her boyfriend's – but never arrived.

She set off at 8pm and 10 minutes later witnesses reported hearing a woman screaming before a car drove off at speed.

Despite an all-night search, her partially-clothed body was not found until 9am the following morning, having been left in an "overtly sexual position" in a field a mile-and-a-half away from where she was abducted.

Colette's mother, Jacqui Kirkby, wept as the details of her daughter's ordeal were revealed.

She was comforted in the public gallery by her former husband, Tony Aram, and their son Mark.

After the murder, Hutchinson wrote a letter to Nottinghamshire police, mocking their investigation and bragging he would never be caught.

The murderer claimed to have been wearing a Halloween mask and boasted: "No one knows what I look like. That is why you have not got me."

"I know I strangled her. I drove around and ended up at Keyworth. I left the key there

For duck's sake, don't evict me and Primadonna!

A MAN had to go to court to avoid eviction after his landlord wanted him out for housing an "emotional support duck".

Vayne Myers, 23, was facing becoming homeless after his landlord threatened to evict him over his pet duck, Primadonna, which he claimed was an emotional support animal.

The barista and singing hopeful said he bought Primadonna during a difficult time in his life – he had suffered from anxiety since he was a child and was searching for something to help restore his mental health.

Myers (above), from Tampa, Florida, said he quickly became attached to his pet – carrying it around, giving it warm baths and feeding it crickets as part of his diet.

But his landlord told him ducks were not allowed on the property.

Myers' lawyer helped him negotiate a deal with the landlord to keep Primadonna.

Cosby giving 'motivational talks' to lags

SHAMED comic Bill Cosby is doing "extremely well" in prison – giving motivational speeches to his fellow inmates and working out to get in shape.

His spokesman Andrew Wyatt said Cosby, 81, is in high demand at SCI Phoenix, the maximum security prison near Philadelphia where he began serving a three to 10-year prison term in September.

Cosby (above) was convicted in April 2018 of drugging and sexually assaulting Andrea Constand at his home outside Philadelphia in 2004.

Mr Wyatt said: "One group he consistently speaks to is called 'Man Up'. These are guys that are going to be paroled in a few months and they are afraid of going back to their communities."

He said Cosby speaks to crowds of up to 200 men and the disgraced comedian uses humour to convey messages like "be a good father" and "be a productive citizen".

Museum of Sex worker sues over 'groping' horror

A MUSEUM of Sex worker says she was constantly subjected to sexual harassment by drunken customers and co-workers.

When she complained, Katherine McMahon says her bosses told her it's "the nature of the establishment," according to her new lawsuit.

McMahon said she worked at the Fifth Avenue museum in New York – which houses over 20,000 sex-related artefacts – as a gallery attendant and researcher.

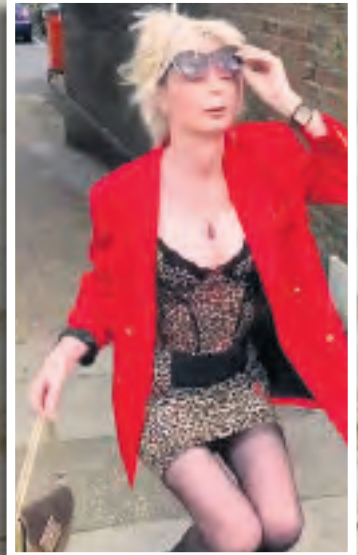

She says she was forced to quit in December after her and other female employees' concerns were ignored.

"Patrons and co-workers of the Museum grope its employees, use utterly inappropriate sexual language and inquire into employees' private sex lives," the suit alleges.

Teacher had sex with teen after bomb hoax

A FEMALE teacher and fitness coach now sells sportswear for a living after a court heard she repeatedly had sex with a 16-year-old male student.

Sarah Joy Guazzo, 29, was found not guilty of three charges of procuring a child for sex at an Australian high school in Townsville, north Queensland.

But Guazzo has still been banned from teaching and now works in retail for a sportswear chain.

A Queensland District Court jury was told Guazzo (left) met the teenage student during a bomb hoax in March 2016.

The pair then struck up a flirty relationship. The jury was told she gave the boy alcohol and had sex with him in secluded locations around Townsville – after she claimed she was having marriage issues at home.

The court heard that after Guazzo met the boy during the bomb hoax, she asked him "have you ever thought of having sex with a teacher?"

The pair then began texting, the jury was told.

Defence barrister Stephen Zillman told the jury Guazzo was treated "like a piece of meat" by the boy, who he argued did not feel taken advantage of.

The jury took just 15 minutes to acquit Guazzo of three charges of procuring a young person for carnal knowledge.

Bishop targets 'devil' with holy water from sky

A BISHOP plans to drop holy water across a crime-hit city to "exorcise its demons".

After 51 murders in just five months, Monsignor Rubén Darío Jaramillo Montoya, Catholic bishop of Buenaventura, Colombia, says his idea is borne out of necessity.

He said: "It will be a great public demonstration of the entire community, where we will pour holy water to see if so many bad things end and the devil comes out of here."

Bishop Jaramillo is coordinating the work with Colombia's National Navy and the mayor.

He hopes to have an aircraft ready to drop the holy water by July 13 or 14 – when the Fiesta de San Buenaventura, the city's patron saint, is celebrated.

'Grenades & bombs' train is derailed

A FREIGHT train which derailed in the middle of a desert was carrying hundreds of thousands of hand grenades and bombs.

Emergency officials responded to the incident in Elko, Nevada.

County Public Safety officials said the train was carrying hazardous materials – including ammonium nitrate, grenades and bombs.

Interstate 80 was closed in both directions, marking a six-mile exclusion zone.

One first responder on the scene claimed none of the train cars that had come off the tracks were carrying anything dangerous.

It was unclear what caused the derailment.

No injuries were reported.

BUMHOLE TICKLER CAUGHT AFTER TERRIFYING SPREE

A MAN who broke into strangers' homes and tickled their bumholes while they were asleep has finally been caught.

His victims were all men, according to cops.

In a reign of terror lasting over three weeks, the man

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

broke into over a dozen homes at night and tickled the homeowners' bottoms as they lay in bed.

Resident Richard Hays, who lives in the area targeted by the booty tickler, described the fear that gripped the neighbourhood.

He said: "I slept on my back every day, but now I can finally sleep on my stomach again."

As all the break-ins took place at night, that was a typical reaction of most people in the neighbourhood.

The biggest problem police had in tracking down the tickler was that he was at first believed to be homeless.

That turned out not to be the case when they picked him up, as he was actually wearing over £3,000 worth of fancy Yeezus clothing.

The tickler hasn't been named and is now being held in a county prison in Dallas, Texas, with no bond.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'm having a bit of a mid-life crisis – or so my wife keeps telling me. I've just bought a Harley Davidson and a Maserati, and she thinks it's so I can pull the chicks.

I told her it was just that at our time of life – with no mortgage, no kids at home and a couple of financially sound investments maturing – we should live the dream.

But while I was driving the other day I had my sunglasses on and a bird suddenly poked her head through the car window.

Then she snogged the face off me and said she'd like to suck my cock! I couldn't believe it so, of course, I let her.

A couple of days later, another chick was giving me the eye as I waited at traffic lights and then I found a phone number under my wiper blade.

What's happening?

HT, Sussex

Sam says...

SOUNDS like life is just beginning for you. Enjoy it!

Dear Sam,

I GET these tremendous erections and this has been going on for quite some time. So what's the problem, I hear you ask?

But now, to my horror, in the last week they have been starting when I wake up and lasting all day – only to crash to earth when my bird comes round ready for a good shafting.

So, the long and the short of it is my cock is ready for action all the time, except when I need it most.

It's really getting me down. Have you ever come across this condition and do you have any advice?

JS, south Wales

Sam says...

GET your bird to stay overnight to make the most of your morning glory.

Secretary gave me oral and full sex to earn hubby a job

Dear Sam,

MY secretary at work recently said she'd suck me off if I gave her husband a job.

Of course, I agreed and she undid her blouse, knelt down in front of my chair and started stroking my cock.

I couldn't believe my luck, as I've been lusting after her for ages and we'd been flirting with each other.

She's 38, with dark hair and a lovely body.

Mouth

It was a massive turn-on watching her take my knob in her mouth, and even better when she brought me off between her boobs.

I sorted out a job for her fella but she wanted to carry on with our sex thing, and asked me to bend her over my desk and pump her hard and fast.

Since then I've been shagging her almost every night, as her husband is on the night shift.

The only problem is that last week she told me that she now wants to leave her husband and move in with me.

But I just want to fk her. Help!

FR, Essex

Sam says...

TELL her you just want sex, not a relationship.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

My mega boobs bring hunks under my spell

Dear Sam,

MY enormous 36DD breasts have opened lots of doors for me.

As an 18-year-old university student, I've found even the most hardened geek crumbles at the sight of them struggling to force their way out of the tight tops I wear. They start drooling the moment I enter the college bar – and I make it my business to pull as many as I can.

Moist

Recently I have been going to the gym on campus and I've built up quite a following among the rugby-playing hunks who hang out there.

One day I went with my pals and all the guys lifting weights were ogling me. I noticed one in particular had got a tremendous hard-on, which was clearly visible through his shorts.

It was all I could do to stop myself going over and grabbing his manhood right there and then.

The fella was one of the rugby crowd, and although his ears had taken a bit of a hammering through being in so many scrums, he was well sexy with really big muscles.

When my pals had left, it was just me and the tall 15-stone hunk left in the gym.

I was moist, steamy and well up for a shag, so I went up to him with my boobs bursting out of my top and invited him to the showers.

We locked the door behind us and he wasted no time pulling my top down.

My boobs sprang out and he played with them until my nipples were erect and then started sucking on them.

Slipping off his shorts and jock-strap, I wrapped his solid cock in the ample folds of my boobs.

I gave him a slow, sensuous tit-wank until I could sense the pressure building up inside his rock-hard cock.

By this time my pussy was dripping wet with love juices and I whispered that I wanted him to fk me senseless.

He turned me round and spread my legs roughly as I leaned over a bench and then entered me like a steam train.

Well, I'd heard that rugby players are renowned for their stamina and this fella proved the point in no uncertain terms.

He pounded away for what seemed like an age and I literally screamed the place down as I enjoyed orgasm after orgasm until he finally let out a grunt and shot a load of his man-milk deep inside me.

We've had several more amazing sessions since and I'm loving it.

I've had so much fun thanks to my boobs, I'm wondering if I should have them made even bigger.

What do you think?

AC, Lanes

Sam says...

WHY waste the money? Sounds like you're having a great time with the ones you've got.

Dear Sam,

MY missus is very fit and great in bed, but I wouldn't be a proper bloke if I didn't have a healthy interest in other women.

Usually I keep it in check, but when we went round to her mate's house for a drink a couple of weeks ago I let my basic urges overcome me.

I went for a pee and, while in the bog, the pal came in – as I hadn't bothered to lock the door.

She gasped at the sight of my dick and made a lunge for it.

It was rock-hard as soon as you could say "stalk on".

She pulled me off quickly and we both returned to the lounge as if nothing had happened.

Well, a nod's as good as a wink to a blind horse, so I went round there the next night and gave her a right seeling-to.

I started out by leading her back to the bog and getting her to pull me off again.

Then she sucked me to hardness and I bent her over the cistern and slid it up her doggy-style.

Finally, I shot my sticky mess over her boobs and she greedily licked it up. But now I feel a little guilty and I wonder if I should own up to my girlfriend.

BF, north Yorks

Sam says...

SAY now!

Busty blonde gave us great ride in van

Dear Sam,

I WORK as a joiner for a construction company in London and recently I was instructed to take an apprentice on various jobs with me.

I can't say I was too thrilled about the idea, but he's shown himself to be a willing lad and on a job last week I asked him to get a drill from the van.

I waited for what seemed like ages and, when he didn't reappear, I went in search of him.

But when I got to the van, I heard grunts and groans coming from inside.

I flung open the door to find him naked, drilling a blonde with big tits.

It seemed she was a divorcee who lived in some flats nearby and had clocked us as we went about our work and had taken a fancy to my apprentice.

Sucked

I was outraged at first and was ready to give them both a mouthful, but then the busty blonde beckoned me inside the van.

She took out my cock and sucked me off while being done from behind by my teenage apprentice.

Then we swapped over and I gave her a good shafting while she gave my workmate a blowjob.

Suddenly, the doors opened and there stood the foreman with a face like thunder.

Now we are facing a disciplinary hearing. What do you think are our chances of getting away with it?

WK, London

Sam says...

SLIM. You really should have done the obvious and asked the foreman to join in.

MIDWEEK Sport CLASSIC

GAYNER GOODMAN

By SIMON DEAN

simon@sundaysport.co.uk

GAYNER was born in Highgate, London, in 1968 into a solid working-class family. Her dad ran a construction company, her mum was a legal assistant.

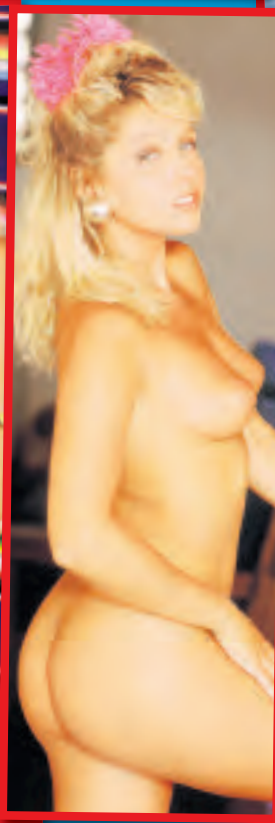

She was educated at a North London Church of England school and began glamour modelling at the age of 19.

She became a Page 3 girl alongside fellow legends Suzanne Mizzi and Kathy Lloyd, did publicity campaigns for Marlboro and Britvic, commercials for Vodafone and was a regular on the panto and TV gameshow circuit.

She also did nude mag shoots and was a regular on the pages of upscale girlie magazine Penthouse.

And, of course, she was a favourite with Sunday Sport readers.

By 1994 Gayner was at the top of her game and the 25-year-old pinup was crowned Calendar Queen of the year, appearing on SEVEN calendars – more than any other model.

STORMY DANIELS

AMAZING
NEW DVDS

It cost Donald $130,000 (allegedly) but you can enjoy her for just £15!

PORN superstar Stormy Daniels is now the biggest porn star in the world thanks to her tryst with President Donald Trump.

The writer, director and star of dozens of hardcore movies recently told of her night of passion with the President of the United States, Donald Trump and, frankly, didn't seem that impressed.

At the time she was in her prime at 27 while he was 60 and probably couldn't believe his good luck!

It as bad enough that he was married with a son on the way at the time but when it looked like he was heading for the White House the lawyers got involved and Stormy got her $130,000 to keep her trap shut.

But that's all for Donald to sort out. What we really care about is Stormy.

Amazing

You'll have seen her looking demure as she was being interviewed but you want to see her in action, right? You want to see her with a c in each hand and another deep inside her?

Well, here's your chance! We've got two amazing new Stormy titles for your to savour.

Stormy Driven and Black Widow are great examples of hardcore porn that has a story and characters you can believe in. Saying that, if you just want to get down to the fing there's plenty of that! Each of these discs would normally cost you £30 EACH in a licensed sex shop – the only place in the UK you can buy genuine hardcore porn – but if you take a copy of the Sport to any of the Private shops listed on this page you'll only have to pay £15 each or £25 for both! So, if you want to see Stormy taking some massive meat you know what to do!

Sorry Donald, yours is nowhere near as big as the ones here!

RRP £30 Bring this Sunday Sport & you pay £15 each
Or get them BOTH for just £25

#MY SEX FANTASY

GEMMA MASSEY,

FROM TAMWORTH,
STAFFS

'I'm lucky in that I don't really have a gag reflex'

I ABSOLUTELY love taking my fella by surprise and waking him up with a BLOWJOB.

I'm quite bossy and usually take control in the bedroom.

I absolutely love sex – I'm a bit of a nymphomaniac, and I'm not afraid to show it, either!

I get so turned on when his huge cock, as I'm licking it slowly, starts to go hard until it's a full-on boner ready to service me.

Using lots of saliva, I run my tongue all up and down the shaft, then pay the head lots of attention, as well as his balls.

Then I speed it up and give him some deep throat action – I'm lucky in that I don't really have a gag reflex.

Once I hear him moaning, I climb on top and begin to ride him. I know he loves it when my big boobs are bouncing in his face.

Sucking

Now and again I'll stop and go back to sucking him, then return to riding on top – sometimes in the reverse cow girl position so he has a nice view of my peachy bum bouncing up and down, too.

The variety of the different sensations drives him wild and it isn't long before he explodes – either inside me, in my mouth or all over my bum.

I can think of no better way to start the day – can you?!

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

JAYMIE FEATHER

JUICY Jaymie Feather from Bradford, W. Yorks, has landed a spot in this week's Show Me The Honey thanks to a letter sent in by her biggest fan Marc Gallagher.

The 33-year-old mature student, from Oldham, said Jaymie, 29, is his ideal woman.

He said: "Can you print a photo of Jaymie for me soon? She's Bradford, which is just over the Pennines from where I live, but I haven't been lucky enough to catch a glimpse of her, or her 30E knockers, in the flesh yet, sadly!"

TEAGAN MEGSON

SCAFFOLDER Gary Headley, from Barrow-in-Furness, requested this boobs-out snap of Teagan Megson, 29, from Manchester.

Gary, 52, told us he always has a copy of Midweek Sport in his work van to while away his lunch hour ogling his favourite babes.

Gary said: "In my work I often get stuck in my van for hours at a time.

"I always keep my fingers crossed that I will see Tegan and her superb 34DDs in the paper – but it's been bloody ages since you printed a photo of her!"

TARA MAY

ENGLISH tutor Richard Thornton holds a candle for Tara May, 29, and admits that, like his favourite 17th century poems, his love will never be returned by the Chelmsford babe.

Bookworm Richard, 48, said it's Tara's eye popping 32DD bra-busters that do it for him.

Richard, from the Isle of Wight, said: "Tara is drop-dead gorgeous, the kind of girl I've been waiting for all my life.

"But a guy like me wouldn't stand a chance with someone as fit as her, so I guess I'll have to make do with a glamour shot of her. Make it a good one!"

MOURINHO 5-1 FOR TOON JOB

IT is widely reported that Rafa Benitez will join Chinese Super League Club Dalian Yifang on a £12m-a-year contract following the news on Monday that the Spaniard would not be renewing his contract at St James' Park and his £6m a year salary. The 59-year-old was worshipped by the Toon Army, but his relationship with owner Mike Ashley always appeared strained at best.

I must admit I had to do a double take when I heard former Swansea boss Garry Monk was BetVictor's 4/1 favourite to be the next United boss with Jose Mourinho 5s, Mikel Arteta 6s, Mark Hughes 8s and 10/1 Bar. This is a pivotal time in the history of Newcastle with takeover talks, seemingly, on hold.

England meet Norway in Le Havre tomorrow night for a place in the last four of the Women's World Cup. The game is a repeat of the last 16 tie from four years ago when Lucy Bronze – surely the best right-back in the world – scored a stunning winning goal when England came from a goal down in Ottawa.

Norway lost to hosts France in the Groups and only made it past the Matildas of Australia on penalties on Saturday, so they have not exactly impressed in reaching the last eight. That said, England cannot afford to be complacent and there were long periods of their tie against Japan when they were second best.

Ellen White's brace was the difference between the sides in Nice and Phil Neville will be looking for the same ruthlessness in front of goal from Manchester City's new signing in Le Havre. White is 15/8 to find the back of the Norwegian's net in the 90 minutes.

Burner

Neville and his side behaved impeccably as their Cameroon opponents lost their heads on Sunday. Steph Houghton scored the equaliser against Norway four years ago and the opener on Sunday.

Let's hope Neville's captain is fit enough against Norway after a shocking stamp on her right ankle late in the game. At 31 this is likely to be Houghton's last World Cup – let's hope we have not seen the last of her on the biggest stage of all.

England are 11/10 to win in 90 minutes with BetVictor with Norway 12/5 and the draw 5/2. The last 16 tie 4 years ago in Canada finished 2-1 to England and a similar result is 17/2 with BetVictor.

Today's World Cup cricket group game is between New Zealand and Pakistan.

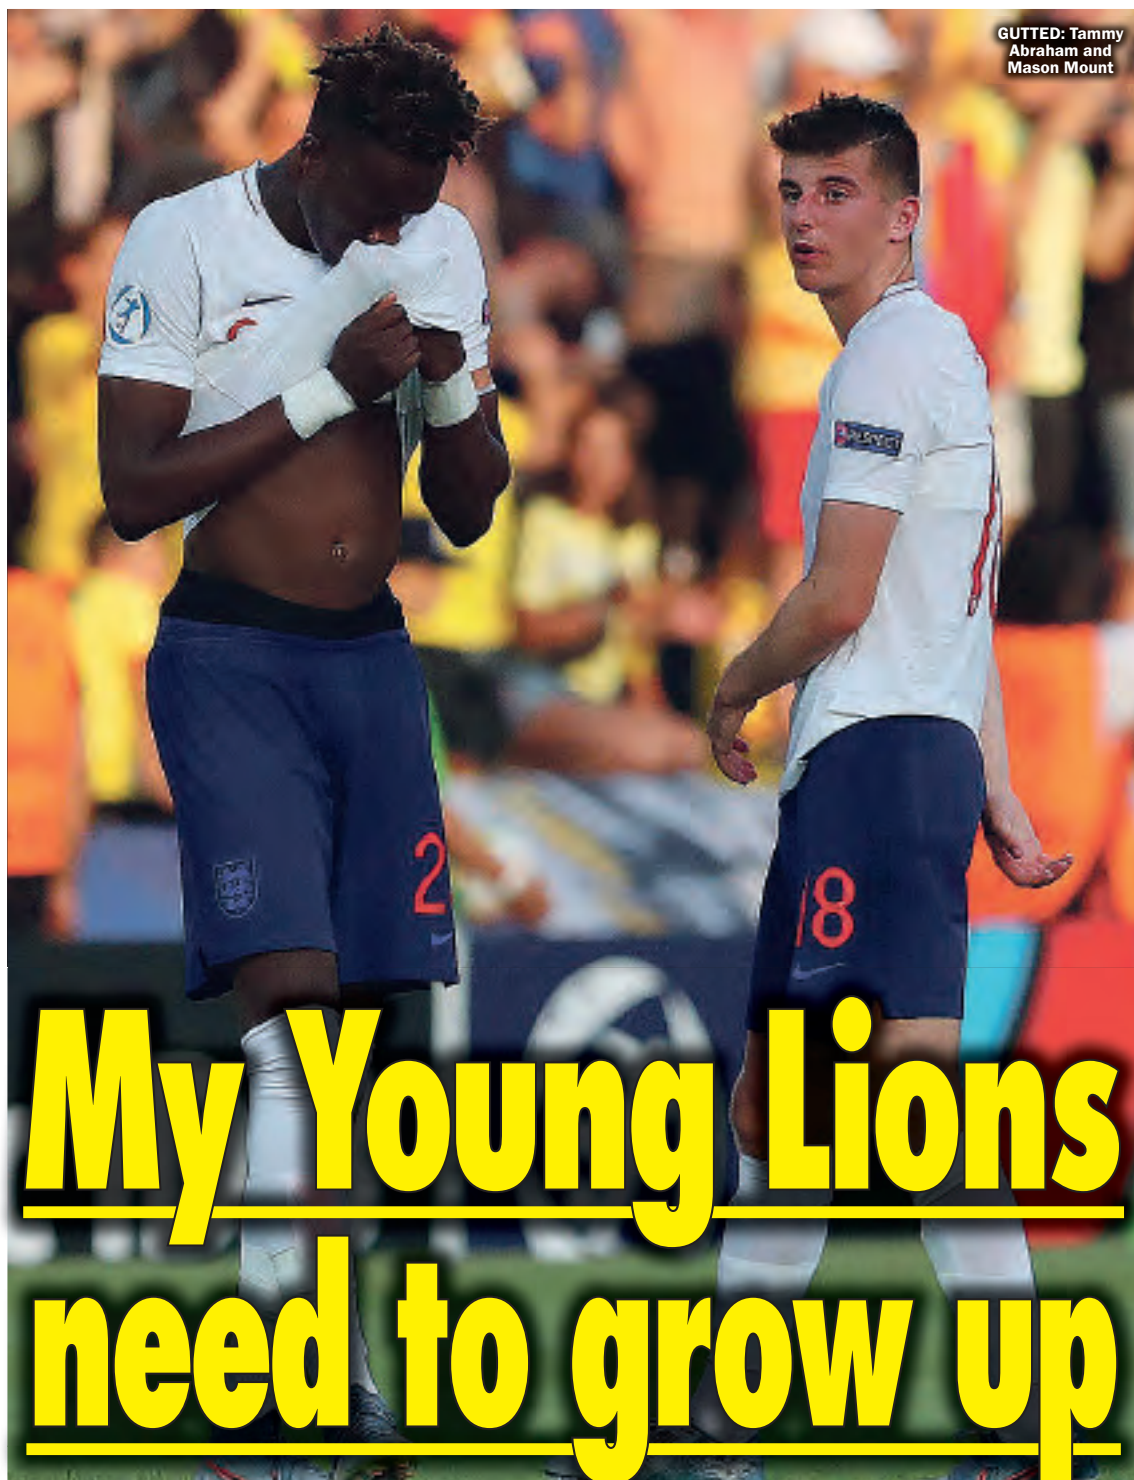

The Kiwis top the table and skipper Kane Williamson's back-to-back hundreds have been pivotal as the Black Caps currently top the table.

On their day Pakistan can beat any side in the world and they are the value at 6/5 especially if they win the toss and bat at Edgbaston. New Zealand are 8/11 at BetVictor to maintain their lead and confirm their place in the semi-finals. The tournament has been a slow burner with the poor weather of the opening 10 days, but it is coming to the boil nicely and Saturday's games were out of the very top draw.

BOOTHROYD FUMES AFTER ENGLAND DUMPED OUT

ENGLAND'S young Lions need to grow up says boss Aidy Boothroyd.

He believes his players struggled to concentrate as they crashed out of Euro 2019 without winning a match.

They were held to a 3-3 draw against Croatia when defensive cock-ups again cost them dear.

England led three times through Reiss Nelson's penalty and goals from James Maddison and Jonjo Kenny.

But defensive lapses proved highly costly and the manager is fuming about it.

England shipped nine times in just three group games having conceded just four in their 10 qualifiers.

By PAUL THOMAS

Lloyd Kelly was the main culprit this time, giving the ball away for one of Croatia's equalisers.

Boothroyd said: "When you give away goals like we have, if you are expecting anything but draws and losses then you are daft."

"The bottom line is in Euro 2017 we won the group with seven points, this time we might have played a nicer brand of football but we haven't done what we wanted to do."

"We've been solid in qualifying. There is obviously a concentration issue but it's been different players who have been doing it, not just one guy over and over again.

"Different individuals in different games have made poor decisions. At this level you get punished for them."

"We fight back and get ourselves back in it but end up throwing it away."

Mistakes

"When we go through it all there will be plenty to learn from this tournament."

"The main thing is that you stay in the game mentally, you score a goal and instead of relaxing you need to treble your efforts. That is all over the pitch."

"When you look at the calibre of players who are making the mistakes it doesn't make sense."

"There will be reasons and we will get to the bottom of them with a new team next time around."

Now focus has already turned to the inquest with many pundits pointing the finger at the manager's tactics and team selection as well as those out on the pitch.

Boothroyd added: "We've got a debrief on Friday, one as a coaching staff and then, if there's an opportunity before we go away, hopefully Gareth Southgate and I will get a bit of time together to discuss their learnings and ours from the tournament."

"There's plenty to talk about."

TARGET: Pogba

Reds can't force Pog to stay at Old Trafford

GARY Neville believes Manchester United should sell Paul Pogba — if he really doesn't want to stay at the club.

The Reds legend says they should do all they can to keep the Frenchman but not at all costs.

Pogba has been linked with a move away from Old Trafford with Juventus prepared to give back the £89m they received for the 26-year-old almost three years ago.

Ole Gunnar Solskjaer would rather he stayed so the Norwegian can build a new-look team around him.

But Neville said: "Manchester United are a better team when Paul Pogba plays but if players don't want to be at the club — that doesn't mean Pogba, he may want to be at the club — you have to get everybody inside and aligned with where you're going."

"Ultimately, that's the first thing Ole had to do — to work out who was going to be ready for the club moving forward."

"I'm still unsure on many players. I see the speculation and it looks like it could be moving all the time."

Target

"You've got to get players in before you let them go because being armed with the money makes you vulnerable."

"For United, it's all about timing and manoeuvring to a point where they know they're going to get players in before letting some go."

"Otherwise they'll become very easy to target in terms of people bumping the money up, which I'm sure they are already."

The latest player being linked with a move to United is West Ham defender Issa Diop.

Reports in his native France suggest that the Londoners have been offered £45m plus Marcos Rojo. That's thought to fall way short of the amount the Hammers want for the talented 22-year-old.

United are likely to up their offer by £10m in a bid to get the deal done.

There has also been talk of Eric Bailly heading to Arsenal.

Gunnars boss Unai Emery wants to reshape his defence with Celtic full-back Kieran Tierney and would jump at the chance to sign the Ivory Coast international.

THE Toon are BARMY to let a world-class boss like Rafa Benitez walk out on them.

That's the view of just about everybody — including a host of Premier League legends. As you might expect, Newcastle great Alan Shearer is fuming that the Spaniard has been allowed to leave St James's Park.

But he's not the only one with his former England team-mate Ian Wright scratching his head about what's going on at the club.

He said: "It's devastating for Newcastle fans and I'm absolutely gutted for them."

"But I don't think we could be too surprised, with the way Rafa has had to fight tooth and nail."

"The calibre of manager that he is, to try and get an owner to back him to try and take Newcastle to a place in the Premier League where they may be going for the Europa League, they may be going for FA Cups, get the squad right — because they had a manager of pedigree."

"People talking about his head has been turned — his head could have been turned when they got relegated! He stayed though."

"They were offering him a one year extension on the same money but no investment in the infrastructure, or what he is trying to do. Rafa being there was a big surprise to everybody but he never ever felt like that."

"He went to that club to try and take them somewhere. Now he is finally at the end of his tether."

"He stayed for those fans and those are the ones I feel sorry for."

"With all due respect and I don't mean this badly towards Newcastle fans. You know what, he has to leave. It is principles now."

Shearer is making no secret of his anger about what's going on at his former club.

It appears that the takeover has stalled and they now have to look for a new manager."

Shearer said: "It is desperately sad news and a massive blow — and it is ridiculous it has to come to this."

Pedigree

"Newcastle were fortunate enough to have a world-class manager who was doing a very good job and they have just allowed him to walk away for nothing."

"It is a shambles and a travesty. It doesn't make any sense."

"From the reaction on social media, you can see how angry the fanbase is, but they will not blame Rafa for leaving and neither do I."

"He did a top job there under very difficult circumstances."

"Despite his proven pedigree, he was happy to drop down to the Championship. And he got Newcastle up at the first attempt, then finished 10th and 13th in the Premier League on a limited budget."

"Rafa united the fans and gave them belief, which they had not had for a long time."

Former Sunderland boss Roy Keane is the latest name being linked with the club, while Rangers chief Steven Gerrard is also being linked.

COUTINHO UP IN THE AIR

PHILIPPE Coutinho admits he has no idea if he'll ever play for Barcelona again.

The former Liverpool playmaker has had a torrid time since moving to the Nou Camp 18 months ago.

He has been marooned out on the wing and became a target for the boo boys when Barca were knocked out of the Champions League by his former club.

Paris St Germain are in the driving seat to sign him, although Coutinho says he would not move to Manchester

United out of respect for the Anfield faithful.

He said: "I have a contract with Barcelona."

"It was always my will to succeed in this club, but now I am totally concentrated on playing for Brazil."

He hit out at the constant speculation about his future, although it seems likely that he will be moving on this summer.

Coutinho added: "Many things that come out in the media are simply not true but as for my future we do not know what is going to happen, that is the truth."

He started just over half of Barca's La Liga games last term and his return of five goals was very disappointing.

Coutinho admits he needs to do a lot better wherever he ends up.

He said: "Honestly, it wasn't a good season. It didn't produce what I wanted, it didn't go as I hoped," he added.

"But I hope it serves me as an example, as a lesson so that I want more, concentrate even more to be able to succeed."

"Whether a good or bad season it doesn't change anything. The desire to win is always the same, or maybe even more so."

Coutinho could be swapped for countryman Neymar who is expected to leave PSG this summer.

He believes re-signing the forward would be a boost for Barcelona. The 27-year-old added: "The arrival of big names is always good for a squad that wants to win."
